Foreword

When we began this Tiot in September, we were almost staggered by the realization that we would have to live up to the great precedent set for us by former classes. Yet the work of the past months now seems inconsequential in comparison with the gratifying sense of accomplishment that we feel at this moment.

We have attempted to make this yearbook a treasure chest of memories, and we hope that it will prove to be just that from the beautiful colored picture of our school to the last page, where we have expressed our appreciation to all who have made possible the production of this book.

Here on the following pages are presented the fruits of our labors, our deepest and lightest moments. We hope that you will like your book—we have done our best.

"The days may come, the days may go,
But still the hands of memory weave
The blissful dreams of long ago."

PRINCIPAL CHARLES A. HAYDEN

Hail to the Chief!

We, the class of 1953, honor ourselves in honoring our principal, and so it is with great pleasure that we dedicate this yearbook to our principal, Mr. Charles A. Hayden, in affectionate appreciation of all that he has done for us, our school, and our community. In addition to performing his countless duties and in coordinating the policies of the school, Mr. Hayden has always been willing to assist each of us in our individual plans and difficulties. His love of young people, his interest in and concern for them, add a special kind of friendliness to Norwood High. In the immortal words of Ovid, we leave him with the assurance, "Namque est memoria voluptas." (It is a pleasure to remember.)—D. R. C. '53.

"The memory be green . . ."

Timorous and insignificant sophomores were we, with the eyes of upperclassmen gazing pityingly on our green gaucherie. The words of welcome and encouragement which we received from Mr. Hayden on the first day of school were sadly needed, for being the "lower crust" of the Tiot social set, we lived in mortal fear of the mighty seniors and of reprobation from the conscientious traffic squad, as we worshipped the senior stars from afar.

We felt less like stray mavericks from the open range after the election of our class officers: Fred Parkinson, president; Dick Bunker, vice-president; Janice Greenwood, secretary; Joyce King and Eugene Thayer, treasurers; and Charles and Joan Sparrow, A.A. representatives.

We became an integral part of our school upon the presentation of our Christmas Assembly with Fred Parkinson as Saint Joseph, Lois Garner as Virgin Mary, and Robert de Vito, Manuel Dias and William Burke as the Wisemen. Miss Gow, our chief advisor, helped make this pageant the success it undoubtedly was with her patient direction.

We acclimated ourselves at our first sectional meetings, had the law laid down to us at later ones, and at the last meetings we filled out elective blanks in preparation for our next year.

We took pride in our promising athletes and in the excellent record they made, and in the election of Mary McNally to the cheering squad for the next year. With more courage than sense we tried to do as many things as we could in one year, and we did them as well as we knew how.

In June, we said sad goodbye to our senior friends, but gloated with excitement at the prospect of becoming JUNIORS!

"How dear to our hearts are the scenes of our childhood
When fond recollection presents them to view."

Norwood

Words and Melody by J. F. Wheelock, 1913

Harmonized and Arranged by G. Roy Walsh, 1913

There's a school on the hill called Norwood
And her sons and daughters too
Are all the true supporters
Of her glorious flag of blue
And whene'er her sons are fighting
And would rather die than yield,
You can hear the school that backs them up
Go singing down the field.

CHORUS

Oh Norwood, dear Norwood
We sing to you
We will be loyal
To your flag of blue,
And Norwood, dear Norwood
As years roll by
We'll give a cheer, Rah! Rah!
We'll give a cheer, Rah! Rah!
Cheer for Norwood High.

"What joyful hours we once enjoyed, How sweet their memory still."

1951 - 1952

The hustle and bustle of our first days as Juniors, the avid exchange of summer vacation stories, and the locker room tragedies and comedies gave us the strange sensation of being in the middle of everything. The position of juveniles "first class" was ably filled by a new crop of "sophies" and we looked up to the newly initiated seniors.

With aplomb and finesse we chose our new officers: Dick Bunker, president; Dick Surette, vice-president; Rosemarie Kelley, secretary; Joyce King and John Cieri, treasurers; and Joan and Charles Sparrow, our A.A. representatives once more.

We cheered our hearts out at the football games and nearly burst with pride when Norwood defeated her arch-rival, Dedham, for the first time in many years.

We studied madly, prayed for vacations to come, but were impatient to return to school for fear we would miss something.

We prepared huge quantities of flowers, tinsel "rain", and umbrellas as we transplanted the gym to represent a veritable "Garden in the Rain" for our Prom.

The realization that the year was speeding rapidly to a close dawned on us with the all-important elections of our cheerleaders, and the responsibility of choosing capable Student Council officers and competent Editors-in-Chief for our Yearbook. Being law-abiding and civic-conscious, we all had aspirations to become members of the traffic squad. No other motive accounted for our feverish interest, of course.

Came the day we held the reception for our graduating pals, and we listened to their prophecy, will, and history with the knowledge that we would all too soon be following them. We watched the carefree Seniors merrily spinning out their final days at N. H. S., envying, hoping, praying, planning, anticipating.

"Long be our hearts with such memories filled
Like the vase in which roses have once been distill'd."

"Those glorious days of the used-to-be-Days that live on in our memory."

1952 - 1953

The long-awaited radiant year finally rolled around. We had reached the top rung in the ladder of our high school progress—Seniors, at long last! Patronizingly we looked down our noses at the helpless "Sophies", who couldn't remember locker combinations or curb their gum chewing habits.

In a closely fought and spirited election we put back into office our Junior slate: Dick Bunker, president; Dick Surette, vice-president; Rosemarie Kelley, secretary; Joyce King and Johnny Cieri, our "chancellors of exchequer;" Joan Sparrow, our girls' A.A. representative, and for the boys, Billy Neilsen as a new addition to the "presidential family."

We held the seats of honor in Student Council with handsome Val Pelletier pounding the gavel as President. We took our coveted places as proud traffic officers and we backed up our lovely cheerleaders: Marilyn Swift, Carol Stapleton, Margie Hamilton, Joyce King, Joan Sparrow and their captain Mary McNally.

Our football team swept to a stunning Turkey Day victory after a mediocre season, and all our teams maintained a record of clean-playing sportsmanship.

Having bestowed on David Carlson and Phyllis Hawkes the responsibility and supreme honor of being chief editors of our yearbook, we elected Billy Thompson and Rosemarie Kelley as advertising editors; Richard Paul and Patty Magnell as art editors; and Margaret Foley and Valmore Pelletier as circulation editors, and mightily did they toil.

Our senior play, "Mother is a Freshman", presented much heretofore undiscovered talent with John Reardon, Lois Garner, Mildred Gnerre, and David Tarr playing the leads. Scarcely had we time to turn around after college boards, before operetta rehearsals began and the school came alive with wild and woolly outlaws and Spanish senoritas along a "Golden Trail."

Feverishly we prepared for our Senior Prom, transforming the gym into a dream

Art Department

One phase in the study of Costume Design is the thorough knowledge of the Historic. This dressmaking class is modeling papier-mache mannequins which, when finished will wear costumes made by the girls and dating from early Egyptian through English and French of the late 18th century.

Beauty Culture Department

Beauty Culture has become a major profession in the world today. The cosmetician becomes well skilled in her trade at the Henry O. Peabody School and is able to maintain a high standard in this field. The passing of her State Board Examination puts her on a footing comparable to that of graduates of private hairdressing academies.

Tea Room Department

The Tea Room affords our first-year students an opportunity to practice tea room procedure. It affords him the chance to learn to prepare and serve foods and teaches him the level of service necessary to maintain an efficient service.

Dressmaking Department

Dressmaking is a trade which possesses many advantages. It serves the home, as well as the community. At our school, the trade methods, techniques, and equipment that are used prepare our students to do a first-class job in the business world.

Business Department

Graduates from this department have developed, to a high degree, the poise and confidence which are so essential to the high school graduate entering the field of business for the first time. Each year, the Business Department adds an increasing number of elective employers who seek graduates from our school.

Bakery Department

The Bakery Department prepares the student for all types of bakery work, mixing, baking, and decorating, and in all of the duties of a pastry cook either for an institution or a tea room.

In all schools there are functions that will long be remembered. Among ours was the first real get-together on a beautiful day in early September 1952, when we boarded the buses and headed for the Peabody annual picnic, held at "Rocky Woods" in Medfield. Our adventures and fun there were the topics of conversation for weeks after.

Next came the excitement of campaigning for class offices, and after the votes were cast and the ballots counted we had made the following choices: Jean Welch, president; Leona O'Neil, vice-president; Lila Ristom, secretary; Phyllis Lorusso, treasurer; and Betty Welch, assembly representative.

The officers took hold and with the help of our efficient faculty a superb Halloween Party was planned. A talent contest was conducted among the sophomores, juniors, seniors, and post-graduates, with a copious amount of talent displayed, and Joanie's mock wedding winning everyone's vote.

With time out from trade, our White Elephant sale was planned, worried about, and executed, resulting in another Peabody success and more money for our treasury.

Christmas spirit prevailed as we enjoyed a hot turkey dinner, followed by the singing of carols and an appropriate play. This put the girls and boys (all seven of them) in the right mood necessary for their visit from Santa. Pictures were taken and ice cream and cake were served.

Will we ever forget our wonderful prom? The trouble we had getting decorations, the endless arguments about the theme, and

Mr. Clifford H. Wheeler
Director Boys' Vocational School
Mechanical Drawing

Since 1944, Vocational Education for boys has been recognized in the Norwood Schools as an integral part of public education. In the course of nine years, through our vocational education program, Norwood has afforded instruction to any boy over 14 years of age who desired to prepare for trade employment.

Our modern trade or vocational school is a high school, granting a high school diploma. The school is equipped with the machinery actually used in the occupation for which boys are being trained. Tools, methods, and standards are those of present day industry. The skill training is on real, productive work of commercial value.

Learning in the shop is supplemented with periods of instruction in the class room. Here academic subjects are directly related to our specific trade, "Cabinet Making." —C. H. W.

"Junior Days are Gay"

Feeling somewhat sophisticated because we had acquired the coveted appellation of "upper classmen," we entered into this year's activities with the confidence and assurance of veterans.

Our first accomplishment was the election of officers: John Doyle as president, Marlene Johnston as vice-president, Irene Falconer as secretary, Georgia Georges and Rocco Pennachio as treasurers, and as A.A. representatives, Porta Sideropoulis and Paul Eckhardt.

The Junior class made its mark in sports this year. Marilyn Aspro, Junior cheerleader and next year's captain, did an outstanding job. "Bozo" Doyle excelled in both football and basketball. Steve Savanauskas and Paul Eckhardt were valuable additions to our football team. Patrick Lydon made a praiseworthy contribution to our basketball team. The Junior Class was admirably represented on the hockey team by Paul Eckhardt, Bobby Mahar and Danny Gomes.

The big event of the year for us was the Junior Prom, held on February sixth. The gym was gayly decorated in Mardi Gras fashion, the music was entrancing, the refreshments delightful, and the dancing was enjoyed by all. This was a night that will be long remembered.

Class Day brought our activities for this year to a close and left us with a whole summer to contemplate the exalted position which we will occupy next year. We hope that it will be a year even more filled with accomplishment and happiness than this one. —M. M. '54

Came September 10, that momentous day that we all had so long anticipated with mingled feelings of delight and timidity, and with it the realizaton that we were at last full-fledged members of the "School on the Hill called Norwood." Through bewildering mazes of corridors we made our unobtrusive but hopeful way, amid the supercilious grins of the upper classmen. What critical eyes the traffic officers cast at us! At all those football games, how we gave lusty chorus to our Alma Mater, hoping that other spectators would recognize us as part of the Senior High School. Now we were able to own and uphold that proud title.

Soon we began to make new and renew old friendships, and from our colleagues we chose our leaders: Kenneth Worster, president; Marcia Pelletier, vice-president; Susan Whittlesey, secretary; Anna Bilotta, girls' treasurer; Ronald Cieri, boys' treasurer; Carmelia Pungitore, girls' A.A.; and Domenic Renzi, boys' A. A.

On October 21, we met for the first time as an entire class and made plans for our Sophomore Party. This gala event took place on October 24. Our more outstanding entertainers were June Compardy and Marcia Pelletier dancing the Charleston, Helene Marcoux performing an original monologue, a quartet made up of Paul Charron, Joe Costello, Robert Donlan and John Walsh, and a duet by Lorraine Cavanaugh and Gail Riley. Danny Chisholm, our emcee, was an integral part of our show and greatly added to the good time.

With our most difficult years ahead of us, we are looking forward with great anticipation and some anxiety to our next two years at Norwood High. —S. W. '55

The Council Carries On

This year marks the twelfth anniversary of the Student Council, and under the competent leadership of Valmore Pelletier, president; Gerald McNeil, vice-president; Rosemarie Kelley, recording secretary; Patricia McGuff, corresponding secretary; Joyce King, treasurer, and an Executive Board consisting of Frederick Parkinson (Chairman), Janice Greenwood, Richard Surette, Mary McNally, Patsy Puopolo and David Stouppe, we have tried to equal the excellent records set by previous Councils.

The annual Student Council Dance was held on Friday evening, November seventh. This popular event was a success both socially and financially.

Valmore Pelletier, William Neilsen, Patricia McGuff, and Janice Greenwood acted as representatives of the Norwood High Student Council at the conference of the Eastern Massachusetts Division of Student Councils which was held in Winchester.

A speed-graphic camera was purchased by the Council for the Photography Club, at their request. A punch bowl is also to be purchased for use at social events.

A Service Committee was formed, consisting of representatives of all three classes. The purpose of this Committee is to conduct projects, which will benefit the school. At present this group is completing work on the athletic pictures which are to be on permanent display in our school corridors.

The present method of elections and nominations is being studied by a special committee. Work is also being done on the revision of the Student Handbook.

Each year two members of the Council are elected to serve as representatives to the Norwood Community Council. These representatives serve as a link between the school and the town. This year those representatives are Valmore Pelletier and John Doyle.

The March of Dimes and the Heart Fund, which were sponsored by the Council, were both successful, and students contributed generously toward the Pencil Drive for Korean School Children.

The Council owes a vote of thanks to Miss Hubbard, our Faculty Advisor, who has guided us so faithfully in our activities, to Mr. Hayden, who has been so helpful, and to the faculty and student body, who have been most co-operative. —R. K. '53

All's Well That Ends So Swell

For the second successive year our team was outclassed by a not too potent Needham eleven 6-0 in the opening game of the season. Once again the cause was our failure to pick up those valuable yards at the right time. Our defensive maneuvers went smoothly enough.

The Framingham game was supposed to be a pushover for the local lads, but our opponents turned in an excellent performance and won a 19-14 victory. Cieri and Doyle accounted for our tallies.

We traveled to Belmont in quest of the elusive goddess of victory and this time we were successful. Our great end, Richie Jenkins, led the attack as he raced for two touchdowns. The final score was Norwood 20, Belmont 7.

Despite a terrific Norwood defense, the throwing arm of Milton's quarterback, the famed Bob Lake, was just a little too much for our boys to handle and we lost a third game 14-6. Eddie MacMahon was our only shining light as he dashed sixty-four yards after receiving a pass from "Bozo" Doyle.

The next game again found us on the short end of the score, as North Quincy came up with their usual fine playing to completely outclass us 27 to 13. Johnny Cieri, our fleet running back, came into the limelight as he rammed through the powerful North Quincy defensive for numerous gains and two touchdowns.

The boys just couldn't seem to get the old drive that's so vital in winning games, so we suffered two more defeats at the hands (not to mention feet) of Braintree (12-6) and Wellesley (19-0), the latter team being undefeated for the season.

We came into our own, however, in the game with Natick in which our boys fought

That figures do lie was proven once again by a valorous but unfortunate group of hockey players who represented our school on the ice this year. A run-down of scores would only tell the sad story of many defeats, but it would not tell of the skill, courage, and determination of a hard-working team of serious players.

In the Walpole game, our boys led 4-3 until almost the last second of the game, only to lose it 5-3. Dick Flaherty scored two goals and Pelletier and Bowles accounted for the other two.

The identical thing happened in a nip-and-tuck game with Boston College High in which Neilsen scored two goals and was named "Player of the Week" in the Bay State League. Neilsen was also named in the All Stars and they took the Eastern Massachusetts and Greater-Boston Interscholastic matches.

With Mr. Robert Conley as the new coach, our starting line consisted of Wheatley and co-captains Flaherty and Neilsen, Pelletier and Surette in defense, and Rombola in the goal. Eckhardt, Palmer, Sparrow, Mullane, Newark, and sophomore Mike Graney, saw plenty of action and all deserve the greatest praise.

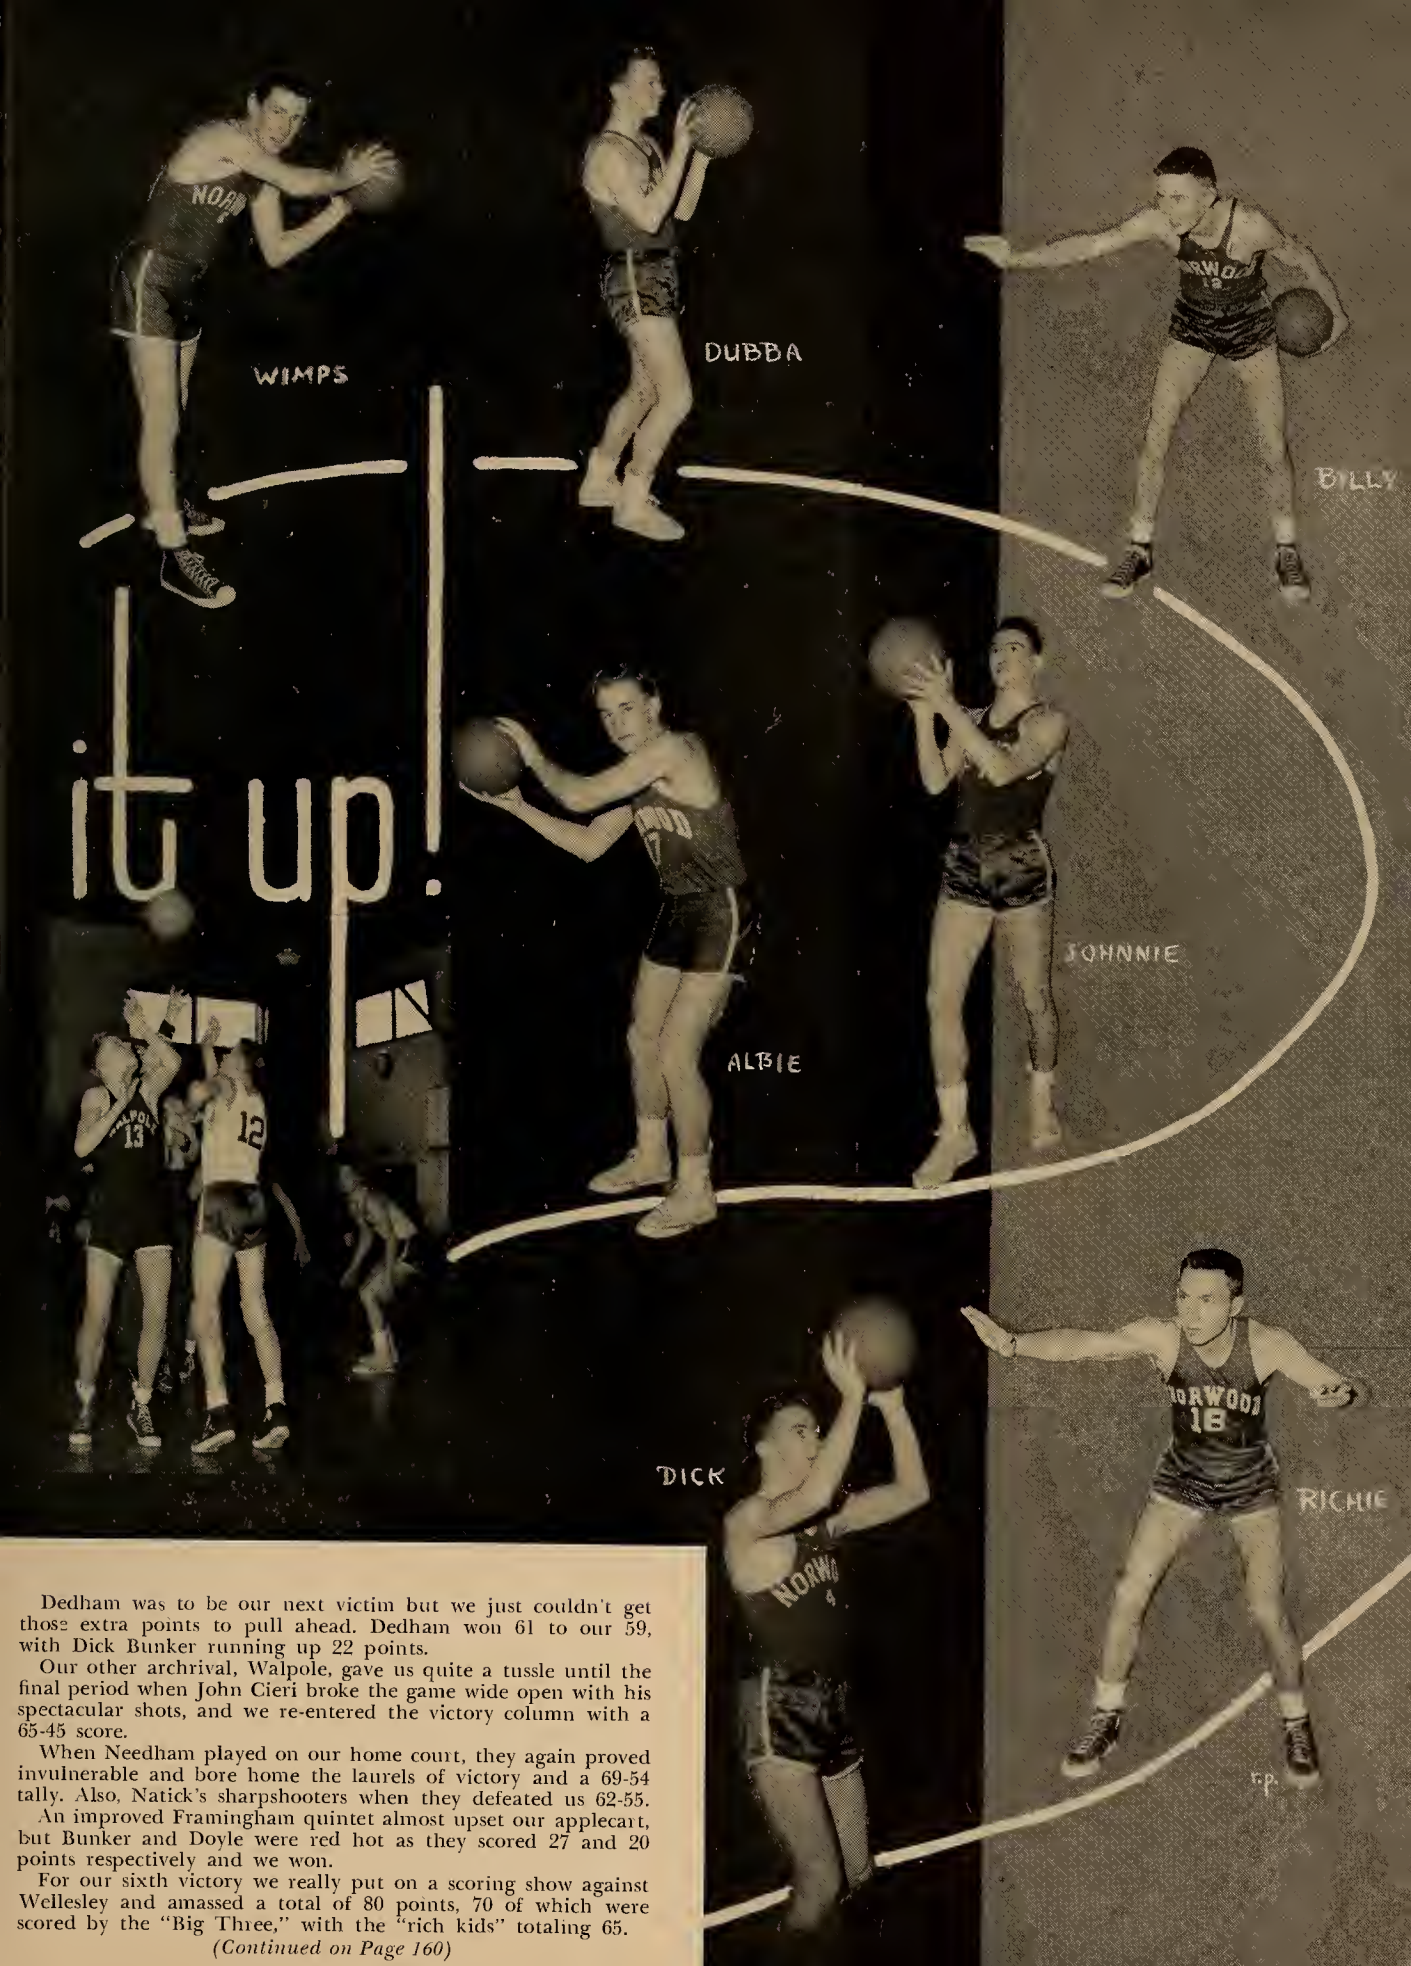
HOOPING

HIGH, HANDSOME, AND NOT SO WIDE

Lacking height, but having that old scoring spark from Cieri, Bunker, and Doyle, plus the great backboard play of Lydon and Thompson, we started the season by losing to a great Needham team 69-53. "Bozo" Doyle emerged as high scorer with twenty-one points.

For our next encounter, we journeyed to Natick only to lose our second game by two points. Cieri and Bunker came through with the scoring punch but it failed to be enough as Natick nosed us out 55-53.

Our first of three successive victories took place at Framingham when we downed their local talent 58-34. Wellesley proved an easy foe as our "Big Three" scored a total of 62 points, of which Cieri claimed 24. In Milton, where they have lost only three games in five years, we managed to keep the lead until the final buzzer proclaimed us the victors 55-53.



Dedham was to be our next victim but we just couldn't get those extra points to pull ahead. Dedham won 61 to our 59, with Dick Bunker running up 22 points.

Our other archrival, Walpole, gave us quite a tussle until the final period when John Cieri broke the game wide open with his spectacular shots, and we re-entered the victory column with a 65-45 score.

When Needham played on our home court, they again proved invulnerable and bore home the laurels of victory and a 69-54 tally. Also, Natick's sharpshooters when they defeated us 62-55.

An improved Framingham quintet almost upset our applecart, but Bunker and Doyle were red hot as they scored 27 and 20 points respectively and we won.

For our sixth victory we really put on a scoring show against Wellesley and amassed a total of 80 points, 70 of which were scored by the "Big Three," with the "rich kids" totaling 65.

Class Will and Testament

We, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Three, being more or less of sound body and comparatively sound mind, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament, bequeathing our most cherished accomplishments and possessions, garnered during the sometimes trying but always treasured triennial at the "School on the Hill", to those all-deserving undergraduates, in the hope that the memory of our class will echo in the halls of N.H. S. forevermore.

Article I—To Mr. Hayden we leave our sincere gratitude for his excellent guidance in the many problems that confronted us during our days "on the hill" . . . we also leave him a bell to counteract his subtle approaches.

Article II—To Miss Ryan we leave our fondest memories and a set of ear plugs so she won't be in on "the scoops."

Article III—To Miss Kenefick we leave one long, loud whistle from the male members of the faculty and student body.

Article IV—To Mrs. Riley we leave a special diploma for being tops in her class and with us.

Article V—To Miss McCormack we leave a pair of rose colored glasses.

Article VI—To Mr. Schultz, our sincere thanks for helping us in the decorations for our many class activities.

Article VII—To Mr. Sullivan, a new chemistry "lab" complete with the long sought "chem" hoods.

Article VIII—To Miss Gow we leave a pound of limburger cheese with an air conditioning unit to go with it.

Article IX—To Mr. Klugh, a stop watch for checking the time every three seconds.

Article X—To the custodians we leave our apologies and remnants of our love affairs carved on the desks to remind them of an A No. 1 class.

Article XI—To the undergraduates we leave "bon appetit" for those delicious luncheons served in our charming cafeteria deluxe.

Article XII—We leave a copy of the "Marquis of Queensberry Rules" to the hockey team.

Article XIII—Billy Neilsen leaves his driving ability to any undergraduate who no longer wishes to tread along the road of life.

Article XIV—Valmore Pelletier's attraction for the fair sex is left to Mike Graney, "sophomore heart throb". They came, we looked, we fell!!

Article XV—The seniors leave the "sophies" to put up with this "hazardous world" and to remember to be "ladies and gentlemen always."

Article XVI—Lois Garner leaves her "Mademoiselle look" to Beverly Cofsky "piece de resistance" of the junior clothes crowd.

Article XVII—Ralph Haddad and Johnny Cieri leave a string of broken hearts and a book of rules for the game to "Bozo" Doyle, the junior who can't even confine his conquests to Norwood.

Article XVIII—The football team leaves orders to continue the winning streak over Dedham to next year's squad, or else!!

Article XIX—Alma McLean and Dave Stouppe leave their dancing feet to any juniors who "ain't got rhythm."

Article XX—Dave Carlson and Freddie Parkinson leave their sheepskins to next year's wolves.

Article XXI—The senior girls leave Coach Scafati their undying admiration.

Article XXII—Jimmy Callahan leaves his strength of character to Richard Saunders, a very nice junior.

Article XXIII—Janet Wenstrom regretfully leaves Leroy behind.

Article XXIV—The chemistry classes leave clothespins to the underclassmen to prevent the inhalation of those foul aromas resulting from the inevitable chemistry "accidents."

Article XXV—"Stretch" Collins leaves a few inches to Sonny Golden, the junior rapscallion.

Article XXVI—Albie Lane leaves a big smoke ring around the school to "Stogey" Lane, his "kid" brother.

Article XXVII—Carol Stapleton and Marjorie Hamilton leave their cute and coy manner to Alice Byrnes and Merline Robertson.

Article XXVIII—The senior girls leave the best of luck to the senior boys who take on a job with their Uncle Sam.

Article XXIX—Dave Carlson and Phyllis Hawkes leave the Tiot, all the better for their expert management.

Article XXX—Tommy Thompson and Rosie Kelley leave the advertising editorship to any juniors who have good heads for the figures $5.00, $7.50, $10.00, $15.00, and $30.00, "plus cuts."

Article XXXI—The cheerleaders leave all the fun of the football breakfasts to next year's noisy ones!

Article XXXII—Joanie Sparrow and Pat Mondor leave their coquettish talents to that junior vamp, Barbara Sanborn.

Article XXXIII—Margie Foley and Valmore Pelletier leave the circulation job to the juniors who are most adept at talking the undergrads out of their money.

Article XXXIV—Pat McGuff, the senior American beauty, leaves her charm and radiance to Mary Greenlaw, that Peabody peach.

Article XXXV—The senior boys leave a message to the junior boys, "See you in the draft!"

Article XXXVI—Ruth Wurlitzer leaves her flying fingers and melodic voice to Reni Falconer—the junior music whiz.

Article XXXVII—The Senior "lushes" leave wondering what the sophomore and junior girls will do without them.

Article XXXVIII—Mary McNally, captain of the 1953 cheerleaders, leaves her popularity and versatility to Marilyn Aspro—vivacious captain for '54.

Article XXXIX—Dick Bunker leaves his ability as Senior class president to anyone embodying the attributes of popularity, versatility, and diplomacy plus.

Article XL—The senior graduates leave the underclassmen to worry over tests, to write notes, to form twosomes, to yawn, to gripe, to giggle, and to learn—in short, to have the best years of their lives.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our names and affixed our seal, this fifth day of June, in the year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-three.

Merci Beaucoup

We wish to take this opportunity to thank the sponsors and advertisers who have helped us to finance this yearbook. At the same time, we wish to suggest to our fellow classmates and to all our friends who read this book that they patronize the stores listed in our advertising section. Yearbook advertising may reach a more limited audience than newspaper advertising, but it is much more permanent and much more handsomely displayed, and it will be read through the years by all of us who cherish this souvenir of happy high school days.

haven—realizing at the time that the mood matched the evening.

Then with dizzy speed came our graduation rehearsals, the Class Day reception by the Juniors, and our banquet. Soon our footsteps are to travel different paths which may not meet again. So we leave carrying with us the memory of that famous precept of our beloved principal, "Ladies and Gentlemen always."

"When Time, who steals our years away, shall steal our pleasures, too,
The memory of the past will stay, and half our joys renew."

Still Are These Thoughts . . .

the last straw—the no-school signal that very day! Nevertheless, all the girls turned up looking ravishing in their gowns, and we danced to our theme song, "Moonlight and Roses." Bob Vesper's orchestra played and the waltz contest was won by Mary Greenlaw and Jimmy Armstrong. Barbara Sameski was chosen "Miss Peabody," and Lila Ristom and Jean Welch were her attendants.

June rushed up on us and meant only one thing, DEPARTURE. The undergraduates entertained the seniors at a buffet luncheon on the lawn of the Peabody school. It was a beautiful day and everyone seemed happy. However, deep down we felt rather sad to be leaving the school and the teachers we had learned to love so well, but all good things must come to an end.

"Hail, Memory, hail! in thy exhaustless mine
From age to age unnumber'd treasures shine!"

All's Well That Ends So Swell . . .

every minute with the pep and drive heretofore lacking and came out on top 15-12. All our boys played as fine a game as has been seen in Norwood for many a moon.

Encouraged now, and more confident of our ability, we prepared for the annual classic with Dedham on Thanksgiving day. In what was a bitterly fought contest all the way, our boys simply refused to yield and completely bewildered the Dedham clan, to score a terrific upset by a score of 20-6. Richi Jenkins scored two T.D.'s and Johnny Cieri left the great Dedham defense in utter ruin, while our stalwart captains, Parkinson, Surette, and Lane were stellar standouts. —R. B. '53

High, Handsome and Not So Wide . . .

The twice-beaten Milton team gave us our worst beating of the campaign as they pinned a 79-66 defeat on us, although our Johnny Cieri set an all-time scoring mark of 36 points.

We downed Walpole once again 63-46 and Dick Bunker was right in stride with 28 points, but in the final encounter of the campaign, we were completely outclassed by a spirited Dedham quintet by a score of 71-57. Although this wasn't a too successful season, we managed to win seven games which were three more than we won last year. We are looking forward to bigger things next year as John Doyle, and Packy Lydon are juniors this year. The "Big Three" ended the season with a total of 698 points. Well done, boys!!—D. C. '53
